Local Expositions.

John Garlick, of Emmet, has returned to this place.

L. J. Leonard, of Peck, visited friends in town last week.

Children's hats from 20 cts. up at Kittle A. Carroll's.

Elder R. B. Brown is on a visit to Algona this week.

Just received a car load of lime by John Saunders, Brockway Centre.

P. S. McGregory, of Cass City, made his friends in these parts a visit the past week.

The Republicans have three majority on the Board of Supervisors in St. Clair County.

Jas Cogley, one of Emmet's most enterprising business men, was in town on business last week.

C. H. Niggeman and the Holden Bros have placed handsome awnings in front of their business places.

Notice W. H. Wear & Co's change of adv. in this issue. They have just received a new spring stock.

We are informed that Geo. Mann and John Taggart have purchased the planing mill of Homer Rector.

Mrs. Frank Gibson, of Armada, has been visiting with her sister Mrs. Geo. W. Waring the past week.

The maple sugar season is at hand but where are the annual socials? We haven't heard of any as yet.

Now is a good time to straighten up old accounts. Subscribers in arrears should take the hint and come forward.

Miss Emma Pettit who has been visiting her sister at St Catharines, Ont., for some time past, returned home last week.

Many pretty styles of ribbons, bows and loops for neckwear are made this season. Miss C. Boice will show you the latest.

Just received a new lot of prints, gingham, shirtings, boots, shoes, etc., at W. H. Wear & Co's which will be sold away down.

F. E. Brooks wishes to inform those who have given their orders for fruit and ornamental trees, that he will have them here in the course of a week.

C. Andreae & Sons have the material on the ground preparatory to erecting a building 23x32 on the east side of their woolen mills to be used as a stock and sales room.

R. E. Carroll, with a gang of about twenty-five men left last week for Gagetown, where he will superintend the grading of about ten miles of track on the P. O. & P. A. R'y.

Brockway Centre Tent, No. 86, K. O. T. M. Sir Knights take notice that our tent will hold a review in their hall Tuesday evening, April 27, 1886, at 8 o'clock P. M. sharp. C. S. Gilbert, R. K. Get to the front. All ready for business. Pool & Deval wish to say to the farmers that their stock of Agricultural Implements and Buggies will be at the front this week. Everybody call and examine our goods.

Robt B. Brown is desirous of selling his three village lots and parties wishing desirable building sites will do well to see him. He offers them cheap. Also a few pairs of fine bred fowls from imported eggs for sale very cheap. At 41c.

Miss Jennie Gilbert, of Memphis, is in the village for the purpose of organizing a class in music. Miss Gilbert has taken lessons from the most competent professors of music in the state and is well qualified in every respect to teach a class.

1886.

Cape May hats at 35 cents each at Kittle A. Carroll's.

The trains on the P. H. & N. W. R'y are again running as usual.

The roads in this section have been terribly muddy for some time past.

Clean up your back yard and otherwise improve the looks of your premises.

Anderson & Co., have a rather novel change of adv. in this issue. Be sure you read it.

F. A. Griewold is now proprietor of the furniture store lately owned by N. T. Stratton.

Jas Holcomb and Geo Cameron, of Almont, have been spending a few days in the village.

Farmers how do you like having three lawyers and a chronic politician on the town board? xx

Would it not be a good idea for the members of the Brockway Centre Driving Park Association to have a meeting and get its affairs in better shape.

The M. P. Sunday School Institute was held at Cape Tuesday and Wednesday this week, and quite largely attended notwithstanding the state of the roads.

The M. E. Ladies Aid Society will hold their next monthly social at the house of Jas Pearce Tuesday evening, April 20. All are cordially invited to attend.

Holden Bros. having the finest selected stock of boots and shoes in Brockway Centre wish to call the attention of our numerous readers to their change of adv. in this issue.

The following is the vote cast for the five constables omitted last week:—T. Hebler 216; Geo Weston 170; M. V. Richardson 97; Thos Emery 76; Albert Secor 65 and scattering 3.

N. T. Stratton and family has moved onto the farm lately purchased by him of H. Griewold where he will spend his time this season tilling the soil. John Stratton and family have taken up their residence in Jas. Pearce's house.

We are astonished that so many of whose papers we marked have paid no attention to the request whatever. We do not care to place the accounts in the hands of our attorney but will be compelled to if you do not call in and settle up.

The following item we clip from the Live Stock and Mining Journal of El Paso, Texas, which relates to our late banker:—"John W. Lamon, of Port Huron, Michigan, was in the city a few days since, looking up business in the interest of a number of Michigan's leading capitalists. He left for San Jose, Cal., Tuesday morning, well impressed with El Paso and promising to return soon."

We give the residents in the north-west part of the town credit for making numerous improvements this spring the greatest of which is the laying of sidewalks. Jas. Wallace has his completed as also have the Andreae Bros together with a finely constructed bridge across the gulley. W. D. Wear, H. F. Leonard, D. Barrett and Thos Hickey will have their sidewalks laid in the course of a week. These improvements will add greatly to that part of the town. It can be easily seen that two or three of the council live on that street.

WANTED—Farms for sale at Brown & Merrill's real estate and loan office, Brockway Centre, Mich. $100,000 to loan at low rate of interest.

Good for Brockway Centre.
If people in this section think the Centre is not progressing and putting on metropolitan airs, let them step into our leading Millinery and Fancy Goods establishment kept by Miss C. Boice, next door to the postoffice. There you will find precisely the same nobby spring styles that is observed in the wide awake stores of large cities. Miss B. has just returned from Detroit where she has been taking lessons in the art of trimming according to this spring's styles and also selecting her new stock which she has now on exhibition and will be pleased to have everybody call and inspect and price her goods. Being under small expense she is able to give lower prices than can be had in larger places and buying for cash, has the advantage of obtaining as low prices as any buyer in the state. No doubt this is the place to visit if you want millinery, neckwear, gloves, corsets, lace, ribbons, hoods, bustles and all kinds of fashionable ladies wear and notions. Remember the place and give her a call.

OBITUARY.

LAKE—In Brockway Centre, on Saturday, April 11, 1886, Joseph Lake, aged 65 years, 6 months and 6 days.

The deceased was born in Toronto, Ont., July 27, 1820, where he spent most of his life. In 1875 he came to Michigan where he has lived about 10 years among kind friends and obliging neighbors.

His sickness was somewhat protracted, giving him opportunity to make requisite preparation for the exchange of worlds and which was most earnestly and faithfully improved by him and he was enabled to rejoice in the sweet consciousness of the Divine favor.

The last words that fell from his lips were "glory to God," and he sweetly fell asleep in Jesus amid the kindly ministrations of his loving family. May all surviving friends be prepared to meet him in Heaven. How true it is that:

"Jesus can make a dying bed
Feel soft as downy pillows are,
While on his breast he leans his head,
And breathe his life out sweetly there."

Mr. Lake's funeral was largely attended on Sabbath morning April 4, 1886, at the M. P. church, Brockway Centre, where a sermon was preached by the Rev. Ira H. King, pastor; Rev. H. King, pastor of the M. E. church assisting in the services.

COMMON COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.
April 12, 1886.
Jas. Brown's office.

Council met in adjourned session. Called to order by Pres. Brown. Trustees present, Allen, Leonard, Morrill and Mills.

Moved by Allen and Mills that ordinance No. 2 entitled an ordinance relative to nuisance be adopted and passed. Carried.

The committee on claims and accounts report the following correct:

Thos. Emery $3.20
Jas. Holcomb $3.20
Frank Gibson $3.20
O. P. Chamberlain $3.20
H. F. Leonard $3.20
J. E. Hoskin $3.20
J. S. Cook $3.20
Jas. Merrill $3.20

Moved by Leonard and Allen that the above accounts be allowed and ordered drawn on treasurer for same. Carried.

The following officers were appointed:—health officer, Wm Gowen; marshal, Geo. Weston; president, J. H. Leonard; village attorney, Wm Gowen. On motion council adjourned.

JOS. EFFERICK, clerk.
Valley Centre Vapor.

A thing of the past—our literary society.

H. O. Babcock, of Peck was in town last week.

Geo. Etherington is now a resident of Brockway Centre.

A number of the boys started for the "dirt" last week.

J. H. Beckett has been on the sick list but is now convalescent.

The general topic of conversation here is the bad condition of the roads.

Miss McFarlane, of Ontario, is visiting her sister Mrs. Spearman, of this place.

W. Weeks who has been suffering from a severe attack of quinsy is now able to be around.

Thos. Mair, who purchased the York farm, is making preparations to build a large barn this spring.

Arch McLeod is home from Cheboygan where he has been in the employ of his uncle for the past six months.

We notice that the Valley Centre House is advertised for sale, the proprietor desiring to return to his former occupation.

Married—April 12, 1886, by John Makelin, J. P., Phillip Dufee and Miss Warwick, both of this township. We wish them a pleasant journey through this world.

You will be surprised to see the rapid improvement that will follow; you will be inspired with new life; strength and activity will return; pain and misery will cease, and henceforth you will rejoice in the praise of Electric Bitters. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by C. A. Wells & Co.

Miraculous Escape.
W. W. Reed, druggist, of Winchester, Ind., writes: "One of my customers, Mrs. Louisa Pike, Bartonia, Randolph Co., Ind., was a long sufferer with Consumption, and was given up to die by her physicians. She heard of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and began buying it of me. In six months time she walked to this city, a distance of six miles, and is now so much improved she has quit using it. She feels she owes her life to it. Free trial bottles at C. A. Wells & Co's Drug Store."

Important to All.
Welch & Son have overhauled and put in new machinery of the latest improved style in their mill at Peck at a cost of one thousand dollars and have secured the services of F. J. Call and be convinced that we mean just what we say, also for the next 30 days we will sell best winter wheat flour at $2.25 per cwt. and spring wheat flour at $2.00 per cwt. and lower grades cheaper. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

S. O. WELCH & SON.

Interesting to Farmers.
All farmers engaged in the manufacture of butter or cheese, will find that if they have green and succulent feed for their stock in the months of July, August and September, they can keep up the flow of milk and greatly add to their profits. You will find nothing better than Barrell & Whitman's Southern Sweet Fodder Corn. It is sweet, tender and greatly relished by stock and yields from 20 to 40 tons per acre. Raised by all dairy and stock farmers, for ensilage, green fodder or to cure for winter use. Leave your orders on or before the 1st day of May with John H. Merrill of the firm of Brown & Merrill, Brockway Centre.
